GLOBAL REMOTE TECHNOLOGIES LTD.

INDUSTRIAL RESOURCES

Writers, operators, and technicians support client projects in the field as management teams or as individual personnel attachments in every stage of from design to implementation.

Global Remote Technologies provides a wide range of industry leading technical services. Teams of technicians and managers can provide services, or individual personnel can be added to client design, construction or maintenance teams. Either way, GRT will deliver exceptional results with a short turnaround.

Services include:

► Mechanical Technical Services
► Technical Writing
► Procedural Writing
► Document Editing
► Technical Training
► Simulation Training
► Electronic Document Management
► CADD Operations
► Field Representatives
